[redacted] Most of the money originates from wealthy individuals, fundraisers who solicit smaller donations, and diversions from non-governmental organizations (NGOs); a portion of the funding is derived from legitimate religious contributions.

[redacted] Saudi Arabia for the bulk of its fundraising for several years.

[redacted]

Since 9/11, Riyadh has responded to a number of US requests to staunch the flow of funds [redacted]

A Major Source of Terrorist Funds [redacted]

[redacted]

consider Saudi Arabia a key base of financial support.

[redacted]

[redacted] Most of the money originates from wealthy individuals, fundraisers who solicit smaller donations, and non-governmental organizations (NGOs).

- The Kingdom has a conservative and—by developing country standards—an affluent populace inclined to bestow large grants on Islamic missionary groups to fulfill their religious obligation to contribute to charity and the propagation of Islam.

- As a result, a portion of the income that al-Qa'ida and other groups count on is derived from legitimate religious contributions, where the donor is either unwitting, misled, or inclined to look the other way.

[redacted] financiers, however, knowingly donate funds to al-Qa'ida and are witting that the money finances terrorist activity
